

2024 BCCC “Morrison in China, A Picture Exhibition: 200 Years of Protestant Evangelism”

“Quiz with Prizes” (8-week study)

Week 7 (5/26-6/1)

Name: _____

Submit by June 2th

(Please deposit the completed form into the Box located on the table by the Main Sanctuary's entryway)

Christianity and social welfare (Picture 139-175 in Library Hallway and Classroom 1 & 2, Section E1-E3)

Q31. What does the Christian faith emphasize?

- A. Personal benefits
- B. Successful career, fame and fortune
- C. Personal confession, repentance and rebirth
- D. A lifetime of happiness

Q32. What was not included in the missionary's social welfare ministry to the Chinese?

- A. The caring for the poor, the young, and the weak groups
- B. Opposing women's foot binding and improving women's status
- C. Actively promoting women's education
- D. Building new water conservancy projects

Q33. What have missionaries done to fight against opium smoking? (Please circle all that apply)

- A. Benjamin Broomhall, the brother-in-law of Hudson Taylor, founded an organization and actively campaigned in England against opium, and wrote the book “Truth About Opium Smoking”.
- B. Developed drugs to reduce opiate side effects.
- C. James Laidlaw Maxwell returned to England, and prompted England to abolish the opium trade.
- D. Anti-opium activities led to the first International Opium Commission in Shanghai in Feb. 1909.

Q34. After missionaries entered China, what church organizations have been founded to purify society and change lives? (Please circle all that apply)

- A. Shanxi rehabilitation centers that helped free many from drug addiction.
- B. Operation Dawn centers in Southeast Asia and North America help drug addicts get rid of the addiction in both body and soul.
- C. Breakthrough organization in Hong Kong and Cosmic Light in Taiwan.
- D. Prison Fellowship and Eden Social Welfare Foundation in Taiwan

Q35. How did missionaries promote cultural exchanges between China and the West? (Please circle all that apply)

- A. Missionaries and their children published books about China, stimulating the study of China in the West
- B. Missionaries studied Chinese culture and art, and used cultural symbols familiar to Chinese people to spread Christianity.
- C. Missionaries forced Chinese people to learn English.
- D. Missionaries required Chinese people to learn Western dressing styles.

Bonus Q7. In his book "From Jerusalem to Irian Jaya: a biographical history of Christian missionaries", historian Ruth Tucker described this missionary in this way: "Few missionaries in the nineteen centuries since the apostle Paul have had a wider vision and have carried out a more systematic plan of evangelizing a broad geographical area". What's the name of this missionary?

- A. Robert Morrison
- B. James Hudson Taylor
- C. James O. Fraser
- D. Eric Liddell